What will we learn in this class?

• the parts of an academic or professional composition (essay)
• how to write three types of academic compositions: compare and contrast, persuasive, and descriptive

How will we learn these things?

• by reading model compositions
• by writing your own compositions

How is the class organized?

1. discuss errors from student compositions and review grammar
2. read and learn new vocabulary
3. write a composition (every day!)
